Captain's Day

The golfing gods were kind to Warrenpoint Club Captain Michael Carr on Saturday when a beautiful day dawned and the sun shone throughout. Captain's Day is the highlight of any golf club's year and a huge entry enjoyed playing in the warm conditions on a pristine course which was in fantastic shape for the special day.

Nobody did it shine on more than Stephen Campbell [6] from that talented Campbell golfing family. 4 birdies in an almost flawless 1 under par round of 70, the only under par round of the day, gave him a great score of 43 and made him the well-deserved winner by 2 clear points from Miceal Rice [23] and Mark Doherty[17] who were high section winner and runner up respectively.

John McMahon[14] won the middle section with 39 points on countback from Damian Digney[12] Timmy Cunningham [8] had the dream start of the day with a birdie at the 1st hole, followed by a hole-in-one at the difficult par 3 second, which was playing its full distance and into the breeze. This set him up for a good round, scoring 38 points and winning the low section prize. Jody Clarke [5] with 37 points was runner up.

Playing off a handicap of 1, Paul Reavey won the gross prize with a level par round of 71.

It's traditional now for the Captain to provide burgers and drinks for the players at the 9th hole and the men certainly enjoy this treat and appreciate the support from the ladies who run the barbecue. The ice cream at the end was a nice touch and hit the spot.

The day didn't end there. Member's, guests and family members gathered in the evening for food, drinks, presentation of prizes and dancing. The festivities continued into the early hours of Sunday morning with Rimini performing live.

The Captain, Mr Michael Carr himself, managed to make his week extra special when he won the Max Hadden trophy, an annual invitational competition for club captains from all over Ulster which is played at Royal Belfast. Warrenpoint can now claim to have the best Captain in Ulster.

Morgan Wins on Wednesday

The highlight of Dee Morgan's round on Wednesday must surely be the eagle on the par 5 15th. Along with 5 birdies, this gave Dee [5] 42 points and a well-deserved win after countback from Ciaran Reavey [20] in the weekly Wednesday competition kindly sponsored by The Rug House. Robert Martin, Bruce McNeill and Ruairi McCormack Jnr also had good rounds and all finished just 1 shot back with 41 points.

Congratulations to Brian Boylan who aced the 14th and finished 9th on 39 points. Brian's Hole-in-One ensures he receives his Hi Club Boss watch.

Last week's Thursday Open was won by a visitor, Lewis Fox, with 39 points. Another visitor, Edward Rowe, took 2nd place on countback from member Dessie Brady, both with 38 points.

These Thursday opens are proving popular with the course in great condition, and all visitors will be made welcome if they wish to sample the facilities.

Fearon Finishes First in Norbrook Laboratories Sponsored Competition

A usual there was a big entry for the prestigious Norbrook sponsored stableford last Saturday and competition was fierce throughout the day.

Playing off 13, with a fine score of 23 points on the back 9, which included 2 birdies, was enough to give Paul Fearon 1st place after countback from Larry Byrne who won the high section, both players scoring an impressive 42 points in difficult conditions. The early starters had the best of the day with the rain arriving about 11am.

Stephen Campbell shot a good 40 points to win the mid-section and Jody Clarke was best of the low men with 38.

The high-section runner-up was John Clarke and the big hitting Paul Greenan, stalwart of the Pierce Purcell team, took the middle section runner-up place, both with 40 points. Brian Mc Kee was runner-up in the low section on 37 points.

The gross prize was won by the club's star golfer of the moment, Colm Campbell Jnr. who went round in 4 under par.

McVEIGH PUTTS FOR GLORY

Kevin McVeigh [20] is not the biggest hitter in Warrenpoint Golf Club, but, when you putt like a demon, you'll score well and this is exactly what he did on Wednesday in the Anjo Wines sponsored stableford competition. Kevin sank putts from left, right and centre to turn with 24 points.

On the back 9 he maintained his steady play, keeping well out of trouble, and added 20 more points to his tally to finish with a very good 44, one point ahead of Paul Digney [12] who won the middle section prize and Stephen Robinson [26] who won the high section. The low section winner with 42 points was Miceal Clerkin [8]. McVeigh will have to keep putting well now as 3 shots have been knocked off his handicap.

Stephen Coulter won the gross prize with 38 gross points after countback from Paul McCartan.

In the Thursday Open Competition, scratch golfer Ryan Gribben shot a great 4 under round to score 40 points and better his cousin Christopher Gribben [8] by one.

Fearon First with Forty Two

Warrenpoint welcomed new sponsors, Marshall Day Acoustics, with a great turn out for last week's Wednesday stableford which saw John Fearon (14) top the leader board with 42 pts after count-back from Tommy Rafferty (10) and Dominic Keenan (13). It didn't look like it was going to be Fearon's day at the start when he failed to score at the first, but he settled down and played more or less to his handicap to turn with 17 pts. He then lit the after-burners for a blistering level par back nine, which included birdies at 12 and 16, and a further 25 pts. He would not be beaten on count-back.

How different it may have been if former local soccer star, Tommy Rafferty, had managed even 1 pt at the 2nd. However, he did manage good birdies at 6th and the long 18th to equal the winner's score but with 21 pts on the front and back, enough to take the mid-section prize.

Peter Mc Sherry (20) won the high section with 40 pts and his card also included a no score hole at the 12th.

Young improving player Shea O'Brien won the juvenile prize with 42 pts to bring his handicap down. The best golf of the day was played by the consistent Brian Mc Kee (3) who has been featuring very regularly. He won the low section with 41 pts in a round of 3 under par. Unlike Fearon, Mc Kee had a magnificent start with an eagle at the first and a run of birdies at 5, 6 and 7 to give him 23 at the turn. Playing to his handicap for 18 on the back assured him of his section prize.

Ladies News

Warrenpoint Golf Club Ladies Branch

The Sunday competition on 12th July was won by Eileen Montgomery with 38 points from Sheila Casey with 35 points. Eileen finished with a strong 20 points on the back 9.

On Tuesday the Ladies Greenan Cup Singles Stroke competition, sponsored by Autoline Insurance was held. The overall winner was Catherine Monaghan with a score of 69. Catherine, who has just returned from injury, was in sizzling form with pars on the second, sixth, seventh, tenth and fourteenth. Section A (0-21) was won by Sheila Casey with a net 75, from Rosemary Thornton with 77 who also had the lowest gross. Rosemary struggled on the opening holes but never looked back after her birdie on the sixth. Section B (22-28) was won by Lynn Curtis with 71 from Ann Black who had the same score. Lynn started slowly but found her form from the 9th hole onwards. In contrast Ann had a great front nine and pitched in from 50 yards on the eleventh hole. Section C (29-36) was won by Margarete Mc Alinden with 75 from Madeline Mackin who scored 78.

Finally, big congratulations to the Ulster Ladies golf team who won the interprovincial title in Wexford. There was a strong Warrenpoint Golf Club connection in the team with Tara Gribben and former member Louise Coffey both in Ulster Ladies team.

Team News

Ronan Rafferty

Our youngsters faced off against Tandragee in the Ronan Rafferty but came up against a stronger team over the 2 legs. Tandragee will move on to the next stage and we would like to wish them good luck!

Barton Shield

The team returned to Rossmore on Sunday 19th July to play Armagh in the morning game. Solid golf meant a fairly comfortable win against Armagh and an afternoon game against the hosts, Rossmore. Once again some great golf was played and a solid win for the team moves them into the Ulster semi-final where they face Clondeboye Golf Club at Knock on Sunday 23rd August.

Jimmy Bruen

Kerry Mc Veigh's team travelled to Lisburn G.C. on Sunday 2nd August for their Ulster semi-final game against Castlerock. The first game went the way of Castlerock but the remaining games were all favouring the Warrenpoint side. The middle 3 games clinched it for Warrenpoint, all producing convincing wins while the last match was called in with Warrenpoint also up in that game. Next for the Jimmy Bruen team are Fortwilliam on 14th August at Portadown G.C. at 3:30pm.

Pierce Purcell

Leo Mc Cabe and his team had a semi-final line up against Rossmore at Mannan Castle G.C. on Friday 24th July. With 2 games won and 2 games lost it came down to the final game left on the course. With Warrenpoint 7up with 7 to play, a place in the final looked imminent. However, to the amazement of all spectators, a superb fight back from the Rossmore pair took the match to the 19th where they missed a putt for victory. A second tie hole was required with Rossmore again in the driving seat and closer to the hole in 3 than we were in 4. Up stepped the Warrenpoint pair, sinking a 20ft putt for a 5. This clearly affected the Rossmore pair who proceeded to 3 putt, losing the match and the overall tie. The dramatic victory has sealed our place in the Ulster final against Nuremore on the 9th August in Strabane G.C. at 2pm.
