Saturday 14th June – Newpoint Players

The Newpoint Players were once again superb in their performance to the enthusiastic onlookers that attended on Saturday 14th June. A lovely menu was on offer from Fairway's Restaurant and all in attendance enjoyed an entertaining evening and a delicious meal.

Sunday 21st June – Warrenpoint Senior Scratch Cup 2015

Yet again this year we managed to fit in a very successful 36 Hole Senior Scratch Cup amongst what is a very busy schedule for the top amateur golfers in Ireland. There were 49 entrants in total from all over the country with some Irish Internationals and provincial representatives teeing it up. The scoring was superb on the day with the course in perfect condition. Once again there were 3 Warrenpoint players in the top 5 with Jason Murphy taking 5th spot, Stephen Coulter finishing runner up on 3 under par and Colm Campbell Jnr firing a superb second round 66 to win by one on a 4 under total. Making up the top 5 were Ryan Symington (Lisburn) in 3rd and Ross Dutton (Tandragee) in 4th. Many thanks to all who helped on the day: Duncan Orr, Ruairi & Catherine Mc Cormack & Nigel Shaw.

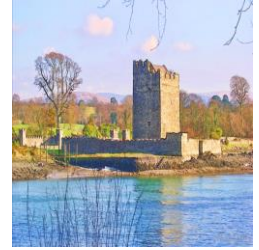

Once again this year we had tremendous support from our sponsors who make this competition possible and so successful. We would like to thank AJ Plumbing, Cunningham Contracts, Granart Stone, JBC Security, Killowen Contracts, Kingspan, Lee Opticians and Newcel.

Open Week at Warrenpoint: Monday 22nd – Sunday 28th June

OPEN WEEK A MAJOR SUCCESS FOR WARRENPOINT

Lovely weather and a pristine course ensured that the Open Week competitions in Warrenpoint were enjoyed by all who played.

On Monday the Savage and Whitten sponsored 4-person team competition was won by Bernard O'Hare. Christopher Carroll, Paul Carroll and Shane McMahon with a fine score of 95 points, just one ahead of Vincent Toner, Shea O'Brien, John Dunne and Patrick McKenna who pushed them all the way. With 91 points, 3rd place went to Kevin Rooney, Jim Somerville, Peter Rooney and Ivan McMichael.

ROCK SOLID KEENAN POWERS TO VICTORY

EB Gas Services sponsored the Wednesday competition which was won with a magnificent score of 45 points by Michael Keenan, playing off 12. Michael played very steady golf on the front nine to score 20 points with 4 over. Birdies at 11 and the tricky 13th saw him 1 under for the back 9 with 25 points and a well-deserved win.

Young Michael McCann[4] is never far away and finished 2nd with 43 points

John Dunne and Larry Powell, both playing off 14 finished 3rd and 4th respectively, and Brian McKee [3] had the best gross score with 36 gross points.

TMV Consultants sponsored Thursdays Fourball. Ex Irish hockey international Robert Taylor and his partner Andrew O'Brien returned 44 points, after playing some very tasty, golf to take 1st place from the more senior stalwarts, Larry Powell and Dessie Sloan with 43. In 3rd place, also with 43 points, were Ciaran and Paul Reavey.

MICHAEL FITZPATRICK SCRAPES HOME ON SATURDAY

The popular and reliable star of the so-far successful Pierce Purcell team, Michael Fitzpatrick [16] edged out his nephew Darren McGivern[9] and Anton McArdle[12] on count-back to win the prestigious Newcel sponsored Saturday competition and book his place in the end-of-season Champion of Champions contest. Michael scored 22 on the front with a birdie 2 at the 6th, but must have thought he'd thrown it all away after not scoring at 15. Fortunately for him, Darren double-bogied the same hole for no score also, his only blip on a fine round with 4 birdies at 1,4,10 and 11.

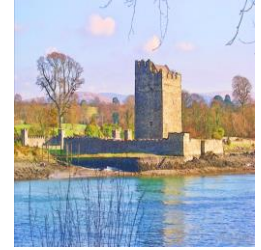

Colm Campbell [4] also played some great golf to finish 1 under par with 41 points, with Gerry Quinn [27] in 5th place on 40 points after count-back from David McGurk [17], who won the visitor prize, Richard Convery, Ray McCarthy and Liam Gawley. All these players will be cut a shot for their next competition. Shane McMahon [5] won the gross prize and the promising young David McGurk, playing off 4, was the best juvenile.

Golfers are reminded that the Thursday open competitions will continue to run throughout the summer and all visitors are very welcome.
